MAJ. GEN. BUSSEY DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS
Civil War Veteran and at One Time Assistant Secretary of Interior.
MAJ. GEN. CYRUS BUSSEY, eighty-one years old, veteran of the civil war and at one time assistant secretary of the interior, died last night at his home, 1204 N. street, following a brief illness. Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Foundry M. E. Church, 16th and Church streets northwest. Interment is to be at Arlington national cemetery, under auspices of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

Gen. Bussey was born in Hubbard, Ohio, October 5, 1833. He was the son of Rev. Amos Bussey and Hannah Bussey. He was married to Ellen K. Bussey of Rockford, Ill., in 1855. Moving to Iowa, he became a member of the state senate and was a delegate to the democratic national convention which, in 1860, nominated Stephen A. Douglas for President.

Organized Iowa Cavalry.
Gen. Bussey, at the outbreak of the civil war, organized the 3d Iowa Volunteer Cavalry, becoming its colonel. Then began his long military career. In various battles he worked himself up through the commands of brigadier general, brevet major general and corps commander. He commanded a brigade in the battle of Pea Ridge in 1862 and was chief of cavalry of Grant's army at the siege of Vicksburg.

He was actively engaged in the advance of Sherman's army against Jackson, Miss. He won the battle of Canton, and at Little Rock he commanded a division. It was during the last year of the war that Gen. Bussey was put in charge of the 7th Army Corps in western Arkansas and the Indian Territory.

Engaged in Business After War.
Following the war Gen. Bussey engaged in commercial pursuits in St. Louis and New Orleans. He was president of the chamber of commerce of the latter city. In 1881 he moved to New York to engage in business there. From 1889 to 1893 Gen. Bussey was assistant secretary of the interior. After his retirement from the government service he practiced law in this city. He was at one time commander of the district of Columbia Commandery of the Loyal Legion, and still kept active membership in Lafayette Post of the Grand Army of the Republic in New York city.

A daughter, Mrs. Isaac Lee Hills, and a grandson, John Lee Hills, of Des Moines, Iowa; a granddaughter, Mrs. Itay G. Miller, and two great-grandsons of Des Moines survive him.

KNOWN DEAD NOW 13 IN LAYLAND DISASTER
Expect to Find Many More Mine Victims in the Workings.
HINTON, W. Va., March 3.—Trained miners, working under the direction of engineers of the federal bureau of mines, today penetrated the entire length of the main entry in the Layland mine, where an explosion occurred yesterday.

Three bodies were recovered, bringing the known dead to thirteen. Leaders of the rescue crews expressed the opinion that when the rooms were reached many more bodies would be found.

Workings Filled With Afterdamp.
Earl Henry, chief of West Virginia mining department, said the workings were filled with afterdamp, and he believed many lives had been lost. The rescuers are erecting brattices as they advance, driving the afterdamp before them, but the chief said he thought two or three days might pass before the mine was clear.

Officers of the company refused today to make an estimate of the number of men who entered the workings yesterday, as records of men employed in mines usually considered safe are not often kept.

Carload of Coffins Arrive.
A carload of coffins arrived at the mine this morning.

Despite the cold large crowds of relatives of the entombed men waited just outside the roped-off inclosure at the mouth of the mine all night.

As the bodies were brought to the surface they were taken to the temporary morgue which was erected a few hours after the explosion, and later the relatives will be permitted to attempt to identify them.

FRENCH PRIESTS WELL TREATED BY GERMANS
Many Little Courtesies Are Extended to Prisoners of War by the Teutons.
Recent advices from abroad through reliable sources tell of the following incident as indicative of the consideration shown by the Germans to their French prisoners of war:

French prisoner of war at the Lechfeld camp who had received the diaconate (deacon's orders) before his call to arms was recently ordained to the priesthood by the German Bishop Maximilian. Seven priest prisoners and a great concourse of the laity attended the ceremony.

The same article quotes also from a letter just received from an American in Munich: "Whatever may be said against Germany, she is certainly treating the French prisoners with great kindness and consideration. I have had occasion to write to the fortress at Innsbruck about an old French priest taken prisoner in the beginning of the war. The reply came that I might write to him and send him anything I wanted. The commander said, in conclusion: 'Abbe Vanat is very well and bearing his great trial with noble fortitude and dignity.'"

The priest prisoners, it is stated, are not only afforded the opportunity of saying mass daily, but lately preached a three-day retreat to a group of prisoners. Each priest is said to receive a mark a month for his little saint and his food, which is wholesome and abundant. The American consul visited the prisoners in Innsbruck and spoke with the priest, who said they had no complaint to make.

MR. JOHNSON RETRACTS.
Corrects Error He Made in Statement Concerning Star Editorial.
Retraction of a statement made February 1 by Representative Johnson of Kentucky concerning an editorial in The Star was made by Representative Johnson today on the floor of the House. The original statement was to the effect that The Star had said editorially that Auditor Dent of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia was not practicing law. This was stated by Representative Johnson in the House. Today Mr. Johnson said: "At the time I made that statement I entertained the slightest doubt in my mind that I had seen in The Star the statement that Auditor Dent was engaged in practicing law. While by statement that he was actually engaged in the practice of law was correct, it developed that a contrary statement was not made in The Star."

"Having had my attention invited to that particular part of the law, I have sent to the Congressional Library and had the files of The Star thoroughly searched, with the result that there cannot be found in The Star the statement that Auditor Dent was not engaged in the practice of law. I am not now able to recall where I saw that statement, but I am entirely satisfied that it was not made in The Star, and in justice to the editor of The Star I now wish to make correction of what I said upon the former occasion."

MISS NORTH ENTERTAINS WITH PLEASING PROGRAM
Under Patronage of Society Leaders, English Refugee Gives Concert at New Willard.
Under the patronage of some of Washington's social leaders, Miss Madge North, a pretty refugee from England, gave a concert in the ballroom of the New Willard Hotel last night, assisted by Myron W. Whitney. Miss North sang selections from a number of old English and Scotch ballads and parts of European operas in a peculiarly clear voice with a wide range.

She emphasized the fact that the war in Europe is calling the attention of the world to the opportunities for musical education in the United States and that many are now coming to America to have their voices trained. Miss North, who is ambitious to become a great singer, said she has found the teachers in this country just as capable as those in the art centers of the old world.

She is endeavoring to bring her mother, left destitute in England by the war, to this country, where she can support her by singing.

My Whitney contributed two groups of songs and Miss McClintock was accompanist.

CONTROLLER DISMISSES CHARGES FOR MOSQUITO NETTING FOR USE IN ALASKA
Mosquito netting for use in Alaska by the deputy commissioner of fisheries, on a trip of scientific investigation, is not a proper charge against the government, no matter how formidable those insect pests that feed upon mankind in the far north. So decides the controller of the Treasury.

As a rule, those on duty on the Albatross and the Osprey, the ships which conveyed the deputy commissioner on the summer trip last year, are required to give their services gratis as employees of the naval service. Therefore, emoluments for special services called for by the deputy commissioner, items of $10, $12 and $75.00, are not payable from government funds.

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims
Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

George H. Mayr, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles of years' standing by this treatment, and he has now found the remedy he devised that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.

COURT OF CUSTOMS WILL BE ASKED TO DECIDE QUESTION OF DUTY.
Whether certain canned meats and mushrooms are dutiable under the new tariff law is a question on which the customs division of the Treasury Department proposes to take issue with the board of United States general appraisers.

In the belief that such articles should submit to a 10 per cent ad valorem duty as a non-enumerated article of import under paragraph 385 of the tariff law, Assistant Secretary Andrew J. Peters of the Treasury Department, in charge of the customs, has decided that appeal be taken to the court of customs. The board of appraisers holds that these articles may come in free of duty under paragraph 545 of the law, as "meats of all kinds, prepared or preserved, not specially provided for."
